Scope of Responsibilities

Tom focuses on all sectors of commercial real estate as well as providing corporate services for clients.

Background & Experience

Tom has over 30 years' experience in commercial real estate. He began his career at Trammell Crow Company in Atlanta, rising from a leasing agent in 1984 to Partner in the Atlanta Division in 1988. He later served as the Managing Director, and President of TC Atlanta, Inc. Under the direction of Tom, Trammell Crow Company's Atlanta division led the national firm in growth and profitability and was responsible for the marketing and managing in excess of 15 million square feet of industrial, office, and retail space. In 1999, Tom joined Triad Properties Corporation, a multi-disciplined real estate operating company headquartered in Huntsville, Alabama. Out of the Atlanta office, he held the position of President and Chief Executive Officer of Triad from January 2003 to December 2009. Triad and related entities acquired and developed approximately 8 million square feet of commercial real estate valued at over $1 billion throughout the Southeast. In 2010, Tom founded Th. Daniel Investments, LLC; the firm specializes in asset management on behalf of business owners, developers, investors, foundations, families, and individuals. Tom leverages his more than 30 years of experience in his service at NAI Earle Furman, where he specializes in significant commercial real estate opportunities in the Upstate, along the I-85, I-385, and I-26 corridors, as well as corporate services for his clients.
