

J.L. Cannady, CCIM

Vice President

NAI Isaac

+1 859 422 4410

12709452029

jlcannady@naiisaac.com

Background & Experience

J.L. Cannady, CCIM joined NAI Isaac in 2013. He is a sales and leasing specialist with a focus on retail, office, and industrial properties throughout Kentucky. He has worked with multiple Property Owners, Investors, and Tenants ranging in size from international REITs to local businesses to assist their real estate needs.

Professional Affiliations & Designations

Cannady achieved the Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) designation. The CCIM designation is earned upon completion of 240 hours of graduate-level curriculum and represents the finest education available in real estate. CCIM's are recognized experts in commercial real estate brokerage, leasing, asset management, valuation, and investment analysis, making it one of the most coveted and respected designations in the industry.

Educational Background

Cannady graduated from Presbyterian College in Clinton, SC with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration. After graduating, he returned to Lexington.