Background & Experience

Nathan has been exposed to the real estate and development business his entire life. It was this exposure that fired up his passion for commercial real estate and led him to join NAI United as a Commercial Associate in 2014. With efficiency and punctuality, Nathan has put together everything from simple lease transactions up to multi-million dollar sales. He handles all of his projects and assignments with great knowledge of his field, hard work and professionalism. In his third year with the company, Nathan took the area's top honor as the highest producer in the Northwest Iowa Regional Board of Realtors (NWIA) for 2016.

Educational Background
