Background & Experience

Kurt began his real estate career in 1997 and is a Partner at NAI Wisinski of West Michigan. Kurt specializes in the purchase, sale and leasing of commercial properties. He also assists clients in analyzing build-to-suit options, development, and investment opportunities. Kurt is one of only 3% of Commercial Realtors to be a member of the SIOR designation. This international organization requires strict professional guidelines and qualifications for obtaining membership including an approved track record of documented transactions. SIORs form a 3,100 member network of like-minded professionals who share business referrals and collaborate on their continuing education. Kurt is one of only 5% of Commercial Realtors to earn the prestigious CCIM designation. CCIMs exemplify the real estate industry's highest professional and ethical standards. A CCIM is a recognized professional who may specialize in commercial real estate brokerage, leasing, asset management, valuation, and/or investment analysis.
