Scope of Responsibilities

Lauren Knox is an Accounting Manager with a decade and a half of experience under her belt. She takes care of a number of key accounting responsibilities for the property management division at NAI Puget Sound Properties, including forecasting, analysis, reporting, budgeting, and accounts payable and receivable. She also regularly carries out other tasks related to general tenant account management and has experience in a more operations-oriented role; she continues to consult with property owners and tenants regarding service and maintenance contracts as needed.

Educational Background

Bachelor of Arts, English Literature - Seattle University
