Background & Experience

With over 20 years of sales, marketing, and operational experience in the agricultural product and the corporate farming industries, O'Rorke brings a unique strength to the team. He offers a unique perspective to buyers seeking a more in-depth approach when it comes to the local industry. Originally from London, England O'Rorke moved to the Tri-Cities in 1979 after marrying his wife, Torena, a Kennewick native. They have two children. Investing time and energy in the Tri-Cities community has also been a priority for O'Rorke over the years who has twice served as Vice Chair of TRIDEC and twice as Chair of the Lourdes Health Network Foundation board.
