Background & Experience

Alex Taghi joins NAI Partners as Vice President of Office Tenant Representation as a veteran commercial real estate professional who has completed more than one million sq. ft. of office leasing transactions and related assignments worth more than $130 million throughout his career.

At NAI Partners, Mr. Taghi represents clients in all facets of their commercial real estate needs, specializing particularly in the acquisition and disposition of office space with a focus on new leases, renewals, expansions, contractions, lease restructures purchase/sale assignments and related requirements.

Mr. Taghi's business philosophy is driven by developing long-lasting relationships with his clients through thoughtful, poignant real estate strategies that deliver impactful results.

He was previously at Cushman & Wakefield, where he was an Associate Director. Prior to that role, he was a Research Analyst in the firm's Client Services division, conducting research and market analysis including the preparation of client surveys.

Mr. Taghi represents clients in all industries, including companies like Amec Foster Wheeler, Chevron Phillips Chemical Company, Stantec, Renew International, Ikon Science Americas, Cogan & Partners and many more.

During the brief periods of time he's not working tirelessly on behalf of his clients, Mr. Taghi is active in Redbuds, the young professional arm of Trees For Houston, a non-profit organization dedicating to preserving woodlands and planting trees. He is also a member of the Buffalo Bayou Partnership; and a volunteer at the Salvation Army Homeless Shelter.

He is a graduate of Texas State University, where he obtained his BBA in Business Marketing. He is a native of Houston, TX, and enjoys mountain biking, taking in concerts and spending time with family and friends.
