Flo Meadows thirty-year career in commercial real estate includes brokerage, site selection, development, financial analysis and consulting in Louisiana and Texas. She specializes in Investment Sales, Land, and Retail. Her Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) and CPA designations uniquely qualify her to provide investors and end users with expertise in Site Selection, Acquisition, Sensitivity Analysis, and Strategic Investment decisions.

Following a successful CPA career as a Chief Financial Officer, she returned to her passion for commercial real estate. That decade's experience is foundational to the advisory services she provides. Her collaborative communication, innovative solution seeking, and strengths as an effective negotiator help her clients achieve desired goals and outcomes with their real estate.

Focused on enriching the profession, she is currently President of the Louisiana CCIM Chapter. With a passion for innovative community development and economic development, Flo has a long history of community leadership with a proven track record of high impact community accomplishments. She chaired the local chamber, economic development authority and Acadiana CPA chapter. Her travels to ten countries, and her pursuit of lifelong learning fuel her community engagement.
