Background & Experience

Bob Berle is Principal Broker and Senior Partner at NAI Advisors Commercial Brokerage with over twenty years of real estate experience.

In addition to negotiating several hundred million dollars in contracts over the past few years for his clients, he has been an active investor with commercial and residential development projects appearing in numerous books, Travel and Leisure Magazine, Money Magazine, Flying Magazine, The Wall Street Journal, on CNBC, and in three full-length episodes of the Bob Vila Home Again television show. His experience working with private equity, hedge funds and family offices provide an exceptional resource for marrying deals to investor groups.

Results-first approach to Buyer and Seller representation, and discreet off-market transactions a specialty.
