Scope of Responsibilities

Jonathan is a licensed real estate salesperson and investment advisor in California. Since joining NAI Northern California, Jonathan has formed a specialty in Bay Area multifamily properties and joined a high-performing team that puts the client's needs first and forms strong, long-lasting relationships.

Before pursuing a career in commercial real estate, Jonathan worked as a personal trainer, where he gained valuable skills in leadership and catering to clients' needs at the highest level. Jonathan has lived in the Bay Area for his whole life, being born in San Francisco and settling in Walnut Creek, solidifying a strong knowledge of the Bay.
